DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hollenback et al. US # 4,409,532.

3. With respect to claims 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 Hollenback et al. teach in Fig. 5:

- A split phase induction motor 10 having start winding 12 and run winding 14;
- A power source presented via terminals L1, N;
- The start winding is connected to start switch 30 and run winding is connected to run switch 32, for open and close operational control of respective windings;
- A microcontroller 40 is programmed according to Fig. 6 that is to trigger triac 32 into conduction when a predetermined time has elapsed following the occurrence of a zero crossing pulse generated by voltage sensing means 39;
- A zero-crossing signal is detected via voltage sensing means 39 and 64;

With respect to claim 3, Hollenback et al. teach supplying current to the run winding triac to be 35 degrees, that is within claimed maximum 90 degrees.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hollenback et al. US # 4,409,532.

With respect to claim 7 in Hollenback et al. the constructive characteristic of the motor is presented as cyclical characteristic of the appliance such as wash mode or spin mode of the motor operation; (see Fig. 6 and col.6, lines 57-68)

Hence, it has been obvious to one of ordinary skills in the art, at the time invention was made to control single-phase induction motor according to Hollenback et al. teaching on a split phase motor with respect to motor use pre-programmed cyclical operation of appliance.

The reason is to adjust required run time delay.
